

Preschool and Elementary Programs

El Sistema Partnership New to the 2017/18 season, BCOC will assist El Sistema Colorado in teaching teamwork and empowering children through joint musical experiences.

Live Demo Program Local elementary schools join BCOC for a presentation about Baroque music followed by attending a “working” rehearsal.

Free Ticket Program for Preschoolers For preschoolers age 4 and under.

Ticket Discount Program for Elementary Children Discounted student tickets are available.

Middle and High School Programs

El Sistema Partnership Beginning in the 2017/18 season, BCOC will assist El Sistema Colorado in teaching teamwork and empowering children through joint musical experiences.

Youth Orchestra Partnerships BCOC musicians provides coaching, demonstrations, open rehearsals, and, at times, side-by-side performances for local youth orchestra partners.

Ticket Discounts Program for Middle and High School Students Discounted student tickets are available.

College and Pre-Professional Level Programs

University Partnerships College-level students experience free coaching, master classes, demos, open rehearsals, lectures, and side-by-side performances with BCOC musicians.

Young Artist Competition: College & Pre-Professional Division This is a national competition held every other year for the “under 30” bracket with winners performing in BCOC spring concerts as a featured soloist.

Apprentice Artist Program As an annual occurrence, the BCOC invites a musician to spend one year in residency with the BCOC to learn the art of Baroque performance. Past apprentices have gone on to professional careers as musicians and Baroque specialists.

Student Discount Program Discounted tickets are available for college students.

Adult Education Programs

Baroque Out of Bounds: Learning Lab An informal exploration of “off the beaten path” programming with BCOC musicians sharing music and conversation with the audience.

Nonprofit Spotlight At selected concerts, a local nonprofit is spotlighted with information about its mission shared with BCOC audiences.

The Envoy Program Envoy team members invite new guests to experience a BCOC concert at no charge.

ArtsReach Partnership Through this close partnership with ArtsReach, 300 BCOC tickets are made available every season at no cost to individuals who otherwise would not have an opportunity to attend.

College Alumni Group Program Discounted tickets are offered to alumni groups with pre-concert lectures available with a Baroque specialist.

Pre-concert Lectures With music specialists, a lecture is provided to attendees.

“Meet the Musicians” These post-concert events allow opportunities for the audience to meet BCOC musicians and discuss the concert.

Podcasts, Blog and Web Resources An informal and accessible blog by BCOC Artistic Director Frank Nowell provides connections to the music both prior to and after each concert weekend.

Ticket Scholarship Program for Adults Discounted tickets are available for adults who cannot otherwise attend BCOC concerts.

Discover Baroque In partnership with other organizations, BCOC musicians and Baroque specialists are available to teach Baroque music history classes.